THE BIG HOTELS

Colonel Taiford Swinging tow for a Good Thing -Colonel Eall's Expecta-tions, Michigan Wire Pullers Ship, owner Ely. Jim Reyd and Tourgee.

Hop. James Boyd-better known av "Jim"-Is here from South Carolina-He lives, when at home in Greenshore, the town described by Tourgee luhis "Fool's Errand" as "Verdensburg." One of the characters in this same novel is "Jim" Boyd, although he is described under another name. The Lord was generous of material when he made "Jim" Boyd and he bas six feet and two inches of human material about his person. He is here as a lawyer, but he wanted, on arrival n March, to be appointed United States District Attorney for his State and failed to convince the Indiana President sufficiently.

Abner McKinley of New York was taking with some friends in the Ebbitt the other night and was not at all surprised when a Western Congressman walked up and sald: "Well, Major, what did the Ways and Means Commit-tee do to day?" "You had better ask William," was the reply, and the Congressman was politely informed "I'm the Major's brother." The two look very much alike, although Abner looks more jolly and less weighed down with care. He is a business man of New York and there at the Hamilton Hotel Another brother died last fall at Pitts-burg. All the family but the Major are in business, yet have a lively interest in his political fortunes.

John F. McChesney of Chattanooga arrived at the Ebbitt last night. He is a leading partner in the "Chattanooga Land, Coal and Iron Company," which has extensive corporate interests in Tennessee. He was joined last night in his brother, W. B. McChesney of Virginia, who is also interested in similar business ventures.

Mrs. M. A. Carlile of Chattanooga, who is stopping at the Ebbitt, is the widow of an ex-mayor who was very pepular in his lifetime.

Hon. George H. Ely is at the Ebbitt. His wife joined him yesterday and they will both remain during the winter. Mr. Ely is a very wealthy citizen of Cleveland. He is a vessel owner and interested in many business enterprises. For two terms he was a State Senator and did the State and the Republican party considerable good without neglecting his own interests. He has been ambitious to become a Congressman, but younger men, like T. E. Eurton, have anticipated his ambition and want the place. As a vessel owner, Senator Ely is auxious to prevent the building of a bridge over the river at Detroit which is designed connect Michigan with Canada. He and all other lake shippers declare that even with a 1,000 yard opening the abutments and piers would be dangerous and detrimental to navigation. The folly and subterfuge of this argument is shown by the testimony of old lake captains, who admit that all ships and lows going by Detroit keep in a chan-nel at the most 200 feet wide. The truth is the ship owners do not want the truth is the ship owners do not want the railroads to have a bridge, as they could run through trains from Chicago to New York via the Grand Trunk or Can ada Southern. Now they have to pay out thousands of dollars and lose much time by ferriage.

Collector Erhardt of New York has been here two days consulting with Michigan. However, the Detroit Re-Secretary Windom about a lease of publicans declare that they will this Castle Garden, which is now owned year elect Hibbard Baker, who was de-Castle Garden, which is now owned by the city of New York. He has offered $9,000 a year for the building if they would repair and remodel it The city refused and the Treasury De partment will probably occupy some one of the harbor islands as a landing place for immigrants.

E. W. Knowlton is at the Ebbitt with his wife from Malone, N. Y., the home of ex-Vice President Wheeler, who is almost forgotten in Washington.

No man is better known or better liked about Washington than Colonel W. O. Talford, the war claim agent of Ohio. He is a round-faced, fully-shaven and story-telling sort of a genius who has been for years regaining from the United States Treasury thousands of dollars which Ohio contributed for the war when the Colonel was a boy. Now, that the Morrill Direct Tax bill has passed the Senate and will likely pass the House, Colonel Talford will be happy. It will give Ohio about one million dollars in clean, cold cash, and of course Colonel Talford will not be forgotten when he claims his percentage. As he looks so young and innocent, many friends ask him how he came to be Colonel. He replies that he was "lieutenant colonel of the Sixty minth Nevada during the war." He adds that "Colonel W. L. O'Brien, the Pennsylvania Railroad veteran, and myself were the only survivors of a regiment which went into battle with 500 men. We alone escaped." This story passed well enough until a veteran remarked one night that Nevada was not a State and had no regiment in the west. the war

Colonel John McFall of St. Louis, who is here with Collector Wenneker, expects to be United States Marshal, of Missouri when the term of Emmons expires, about eighteen months hence. Colonel John is not impatient and is willing to wait. He thinks St. Louis will yet be a Republican city and blames the defeat of last spring upon the Germans and saloon-keepers, who elected Noonan because they expected him to wink at their infraction of ordi-

George W. Billings of Cleveland, a manufacturer and public-spirited citizen, is at the Ebbitt.

Michigan has about as many political wire pullers and repre-entative business men doing the Capital at the present time as any other Western State, and the object of their mission here is otore particularly on account of the Grand Rapids Postoffice right, which is waxing warmer every day. What will be the outcome is hard to tell, unless it is the sacrifice of the Fifth Congressional District, now controlled by the Republicans, to the Democrats, and the renomination and election of Niel II.
Ford next year. For months there has been a strong factional fight over the two candidates being urged for appointment, and the President is at a loss to know whether to aide track both and appoint a dark horse or to select one them and perpetuate the animosity tt.at now exists. The candidates now in the arena are Fred. Clark and Colonel E. S. Pierce, and it was thought by the sup-porters of the latter that his name would be sent to the Senate yesterday, but they were disappointed. Clark

POPULAR MEN IN TOWN. they declare, is the slate candidate and the man whom seven out of ten voters in the city want to have the place, but, in the other hand, Congressman Bellmap demands the selection of Colonel Pierce on the ground that he is the repittled to the appointment, and he is strongly backed by D. A. Blodgett and ether representative Republicans. Hen. M. B. Church, who arrived at the Normandle last evening from Grand Rapids, while not a politician, says that he will devote some time and what influence he has at his command to secure the selection of Colonel Pierce. He feels that there is no other alternative but to Indorse Congressman alternative but to Indorse Congressman Belknap's candidate; otherwise there will be no prospect of harmony in the district. The Young Men's Republi-can Club of Grand Rapids have a com-mittee now on the way to Washington, who will indorse Mr. Clark and de-velop some new features not heretofore presented.

> Hon. Martin Maginnis, who claims to be a Senator elect from Montana, is here, and last night complained that everybody called him "McGinty," adding that he was sure to go down in the contest for admission. Maginnis first became famous at the St. Louis con-vention, which renominated Cleveland. When he got up to speak Chairman White said: "State your name and name your State." "Maginais of Montana," was the answer, which was taken up by the convention, and he was frequently called up for remarks.

> George H. Hopkins of Detroit, chair man of the Michigan Republican Committee, is at the Arlington. He has just been appointed Collector of Customs at Detroit, and is here to get in-atractions and file his bond. He is yet a young man and a bachelor who was Governor Bagley's private secretary and now manages the Bagley Tobacco Company. He was a private soldler in the war and is now adjutant-general of the National G. A. R. organization of which General Alger is commander in-chief. Hopkins has always been de-voted to the realistic terms. voted to the political fortunes of Alger, and was unhappy at the result of the Chicago Convention. Nor was he or Alger pleased with Harrison's dispensation of Michigan offices, as Alger was never recognized nor his few requests granted. The appointment of Hop-kins, however, has made peace

With General Hopkins is Harry D. Tillman of Detroit, who is sccretary of the State committee and who will also be provided for by the Administration. few months ago he was making some very caustic remarks about Harrison, but now he has changed his song and thinks Harrison will do well enough with more practice. Tillman is well known in Washington. He was clerk of the House Committee on District of Columbia while his father-in-law, General Williams, was chairman.

Richard Guenther, the ex Congressman from Oshkosh, is at the Ebbitt. He is a typical German, and looks it. Since his appointment as Consul-General to Mexico he is cultivating the ac-quaintance of the Pan-American peole, and yesterday bought a $12 Spanish

General Alger will return to Washngton next week and remain some time. He will be entertained during his stay by Senator McMillan. The two daughters of General Alger are here for the season and are being chaperoned by Mrs. Logan and Mrs. J. S. Clarkson.

Congressman J. Logan Chipman of Detroit is living at Godfrey's Hotel this winter. He is a short and very bald man, who has Indian blood in his veins. He is a Democrat and quite popular in feated in 1888. Ex Congressman Maybury, who was tricked out of a renomination by Don M. Dickinson's shrewdness, will probably be a candidate again on the Democratic side. He is a hand-some bachelor and one of the best law-

Henry Clay Evans, who represents the Chattanooga (Tenn.) district, is a Northern man by birth, but went South to shoot rebels. He concluded to stay, and was for a time clerk to Quarter-master Carlile, whose widow is now at the Ebbitt. Congressman Evans is a tall, handsome man, who is very industrious, and he has made a fortune in Tennessee investments.

Mrs. General Mulligan of Chicago is at the Ebbitt with her daughter. She is now the pension agent at Chicago, and wants to be retained, as she took no political part in the Presidential elec-

C. H. Parshall of Detroit, a manufacturer and inventor, is at the Ebbitt and has some business with the Patent Office in which he is greatly interested.

Matt. Reynolds, a well-known St. Louis lawyer, is here representing a tribe of Indians who are asking favors of the Indian Commission. He is one of the popular lawyers of his city and State and was originally from Pike

Colonel Blodgett, general counsel for the Wabash Railway Company, with headquarters at St. Louis, is here telling the Supreme Court some things about railway law, with which he is very familiar

Congressman Edward Scull of the Somerset. Pa., district is always found in the Ebbitt after dinner. He is recognized by his long, white beard and he does not look to be 72 years old, which he is. However, he comes of a bardy, long-lived people. His mother is still living and is over 90. Colonel Scull's son is Charles O. Scull, the gen-

He would have been confirmed, but preferred to end his days in peace. He had an increase of pension lately and drew a few hundred dollars back pay, so that he told his enemies to go to a place from which he hoped his Christian endeavor would keen him.

Mrs. A. S. Charles of Pittsburg is the guest of Congressman Pugsley and wife at the Shoreman. Powell Clayton of Arkansas and W. J. Arkell of New York, publisher of Judge and Frank Levic's Illustrated Paper, are also at the

Have You Had

The grippe? is the question of the day. If the influenza or any other disease or overwork have put you into a weak, debilitated condition you should immediately take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It tones every part of the body, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite and entirely overcomes that fired feeling.

Renewed My Grip

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has renewed my grip am 65 years of age and was all run down and discouraged. I have taken Hood's Sarsapa-rills and on looking myself over find that I are much better; in fact, quite a chap. Of course the medicine will not discount my years, but it comes nearer to it than any-thing cise."-Chas. at. Loxo, Shrewsbury, Mass., Jan. 3, 1890. Meadache, Dizziness

"Hood's Saraparilla purified my blood, gave me strength and overcame the headache and dizziness, so that I am able to work again. I recommend Hood's Sarsapacilia to others whose blood is thin or impure and who feel worn out or run down."-LUTHER NAMON, Lowell, Mass.

It is now universally conceded by even the most fanatical tectotalers that a glass of thoroughly natured and pure wine is the most wholesome, health and strength-giving beverage for mankind. Almost every state—no matter how cold its climate—produces grapes from which wine is pressed, but THE FASADENA WINES are made from those luscious SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA graces which attain the highest grade of maturity and riponess and are therefore the best wines in the market.
